

1888, art. 27, sec. 65. 1882, ch. 149, sec. 2.

91. It shall be unlawful for any vessel to anchor on the range line of any range lights established by the United States lighthouse board in this State, unless such anchorage is unavoidable; and the master of any vessel so anchoring shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any court of competent jurisdiction shall be punished by a fine not to exceed fifty dollars; one-half of the fine in each case to be paid to the informer and one-half to the State.

Ibid. sec. 66. 1882, ch. 149, sec. 3.

92. The cost of repairing or replacing any such buoy, beacon or day mark which may have been displaced, damaged or destroyed by any vessel or raft whatsoever having been made fast to any such buoy, beacon or day mark shall when the same shall be legally ascertained, be a lien upon such vessel or raft, and may be recovered against said vessel or raft and the owner or owners thereof in an action of debt in any court of competent jurisdiction in this State.

Disturbance of the Public Peace.

1888, art. 27, sec. 67. 1880, ch. 22. 1884, ch. 181. 1898, ch. 351.
1900, ch. 285.

93. Any person who shall wilfully obstruct or hinder the free passage of persons passing along or by any public street or highway in any city or town of this State, or who shall wilfully disturb any neighborhood in such city or town by loud and unseemly noises, or shall profanely curse and swear or use obscene language upon or near to any such street or highway within the hearing of persons passing by or along such highway, or shall wilfully hinder or obstruct the free passage of persons passing on or through or out of the station grounds of any railroad in the State, or who shall wilfully act in a disorderly manner within such station grounds by making such loud and unseemly noises, or by catching hold of and soliciting persons on said grounds against the will of such person, shall, upon conviction thereof, be sentenced to a fine of not less than one dollar and not more than twenty-five dollars, and to the costs of the prosecution, and the several justices of the peace of this State shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the courts of this State having criminal jurisdiction over the offenses described in this section, provided this section shall not apply to Baltimore city.
